

In 2021, staff made numerous changes to the way wood waste is collected, hauled and disposed. In general the new strategies have been successful, however, there are certain operations that have yet to be fully implemented and there are, of course efficiencies to be gained in 2022 and beyond.

Respectfully Submitted,

Alex Eriksen
Director of Environmental Services