

Temporary Use Permit Applications

What is a Temporary Use Permit?

The Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako Zoning Bylaw No. 1800, 2020 (the Zoning Bylaw) divides land into zones that contain regulations regarding the use of lands, buildings and structures; the size, shape and siting of buildings and structures; density of development; off-street parking and loading spaces; and landscaping and screening requirements.

If a property owner has a need to use property, on a temporary basis, for a use that is not allowed on a property they may apply for a "Temporary Use Permit." This permit, if issued by the Board, would allow a use that is not permitted by zoning for a period of up to 3 years, in accordance with the terms outlined in the permit. The Regional District Board may extend the permit for up to another three years.

Temporary Use Permits are intended to allow uses that are temporary in nature and do not require a significant capital investment tied to a particular location. It is important that temporary uses not be unacceptably disruptive to the community in which they are located. Common concerns typically relate to negative environmental impacts, or impacts related to traffic, noise, dust and smoke.

A temporary use permit is not a substitute for a rezoning. Uses which are intended to be long term in nature should be considered through the rezoning process.

The Official Community Plan designates the areas where temporary uses may be considered, and establishes guidelines regarding the issuance of Temporary Use Permits. The guidelines for issuance of temporary use permits varies between OCPs, so it is important to check with Planning Department staff to determine if your proposal is eligible.

The Regional District may require financial security to ensure that a use is removed and a site is reclaimed following the expiry of a permit.

An application to issue a Temporary Use Permit must follow a process that is outlined in the Local Government Act and in the Regional District's Development Procedures Bylaw.

A Temporary Use Permit application is considered by the Regional District of Bulkley-Nechako Board after they have provided area residents with an opportunity to comment on the proposed temporary use permit.

The time required to process a Temporary Use Permit varies depending on the scope of the proposed development and the number of issues that need to be addressed. Generally, the process takes from two to four months to complete.

The Application Process

Speak with Planning Staff

Prior to submitting an application, applicants are encouraged to speak with Planning Department staff about the proposed development. Staff can provide information on the application requirements and the review process. This will help ensure that a complete application is submitted and prevent unnecessary delays.

Submit Application

To start the Temporary Use Permit application process, a complete application with the required supporting documents and fees must be submitted to the RDBN.

Referral Process

Once a complete application has been received, the Planning Department may determine that input from other government agencies is required. Other agencies that may receive a referral include the Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure, Ministry of Environment, Agricultural Land Commission and Northern Health.

The application may also be reviewed by an Advisory Planning Commission (APC), which is made up of area residents. The APC evaluates the application and makes recommendations to the Regional District Board regarding the application.

Staff Report

Staff review all of the information related to an application, including the comments received from other agencies, and the APC (if required) and prepare a report for the Board. The staff report will include a summary of the proposed development, an analysis of the potential impacts, and a recommendation on the proposed permit. The staff report also includes a list of recommended conditions to be satisfied if the permit is to proceed.

Public Notification

In accordance with the Local Government Act a notice and location map will be published in the local newspaper the week prior to the Board meeting. Additionally, adjacent property owners and residents are sent a written notice of the consideration of the permit and are given an opportunity to provide input to the Board.

Certain applications require that a sign be posted on the property to advise the community of the application. The sign has to conform to certain standards regarding size, location, and materials. The sign can be rented from the Planning Department or made to specifications by the applicant.

RDBN Board Consideration

The staff report will be presented to the RDBN Board. The applicant may attend the Board meeting and speak to their application.

The Board will then consider the application, and may issue the permit subject to conditions, request additional information, or reject the application.

Notice on Title

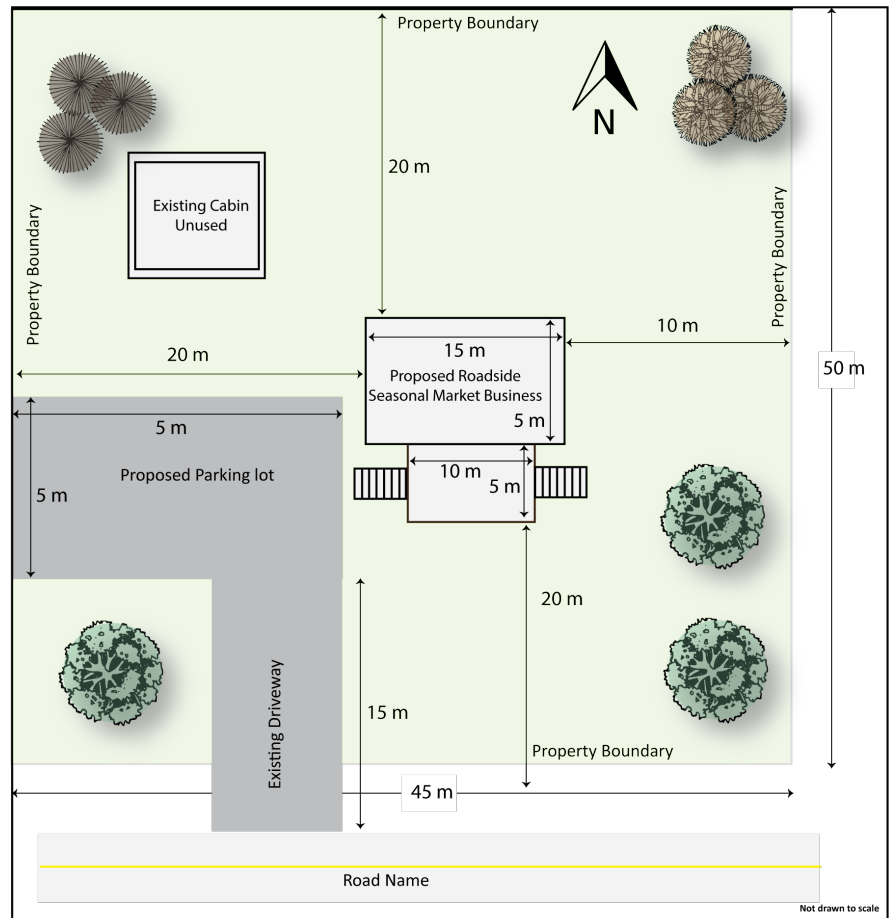

Once the Temporary Use Permit has been issued, Planning Department staff will register a Notice of Permit on the title of the subject property.
